Featured Note

Fostering resilience in Southwestern ecosystems: A problem solving workshop

The workshop will include keynote speakers, but will primarily be made up of interdisciplinary roundtable sessions designed to help managers develop practical responses to novel ecosystem conditions, and measures that may be implemented prior to disturbance to maintain resilience and adaptive capacity. In addition to the workshop, the Consortium will publish a working paper on fire, forests, climate change, and ecological resilience in 2014, as well as a paper that will document the outcomes of the roundtable sessions.
